Düsseldorf, September 2, 2025 – The CONVOTIS Group announces a key change in its leadership: José Lopez, previously COO of the Group and CEO of CONVOTIS Schweiz AG, has been appointed CEO of the international CONVOTIS Group with immediate effect. He succeeds Andreas Kiefer, who is sincerely thanked for his long-standing leadership and decisive contribution to the company's growth. Under his tenure, CONVOTIS significantly advanced its development and established itself as a leading player in the European IT market. Andreas Kiefer will remain with CONVOTIS as a member of the Advisory Board.

Together with Lars Heymeier (COO) and Christina Nagel (CFO), José Lopez now forms the new executive management team of the Group. This leadership trio stands for continuity, international focus, and a clear commitment to growth. Their mission is to build on the company's successful development of recent years, further strengthen its international market position, and capture new opportunities in dynamic technology markets.

Henri Schmidt (HR & Finance Industry Practice) and Emil Pall (Human Resources) are joining as Group Executives, working closely with the executive management. With their long-standing expertise and deep knowledge, they will ensure continuity, further development, and the sustainable future of the Group.

As part of this international reorganization, José Lopez is handing over the leadership of the Swiss subsidiary to Vito Critti, previously CSO of CONVOTIS Schweiz, who now assumes the role of CEO of CONVOTIS Schweiz AG. Together with Roger Rhyner (COO), Jiri Lundak (CTO), Benjamin Kohler (CIO), and Erika Heuberger (CHRO), he forms the new executive management team of CONVOTIS Schweiz.

"It is a great honor for me to take on the responsibility as CEO of the CONVOTIS Group. Together with a strong team, we will continue to expand the Group's international presence, drive innovation with focus, and strengthen our position as a trusted partner for digital transformation. Our customers remain at the center of everything we do – just as the development of our employees, whose dedication shapes the success of CONVOTIS every single day." – José Lopez, CEO CONVOTIS Group
